

Can you feel the fire burning
From the torch they held high
To guide us through the ages
And fill our hearts with pride
Can you feel the need to take that torch
And keep the flame alive
If you do they have passed to you
The spirit of the Famous Five

Chorus to the Spirit of the Famous Five by Carolyn Harley

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

2018 was exciting and transformational for the Famous 5 Foundation. The call to action on gender equality and the changing landscape in the economy drove us to explore programs to enhance our current legacy and move the Foundation into the future.

We identified where the Foundation could have the most impact on our future generation and developed a program to address the need, while continuing to share the legacy of the Famous 5. By identifying this need, the Foundation expanded its vision and focus for the coming years.

In the past, we successfully changed anthem lyrics, erected statues, and had the history of the Famous 5 included in the Grade 5 school curriculum across the Western provinces. We now hope to expand on that education through the development of our own Girls' Leadership Program.

Thank you to all that made this year's activities so successful.

Gabriela Wilson
Chair, Famous 5 Foundation

2018 Event Highlights

Committees in Calgary, Edmonton, Ottawa, and Sarnia host special events celebrating Canadian women, 'Persons' Day, and the Enbridge Famous 5 Speaker Series. The Calgary committee, in partnership with Carya (formerly Calgary Family Services), teaches the attendees of Young Women of Power (YWOP) about the attributes and the accomplishment of the Famous 5.

Enbridge also sponsors two youth award categories: History and Leadership. For the History Award, applicants from across Alberta submit essays about characteristics of the Famous 5: Louise McKinney – Revolutionary Thinking; Henrietta Muir Edwards – Strategy & Bigger Picture; Irene Parlby – Advocacy; Emily Murphy – Resourcefulness & Perseverance; or Nellie McClung – Teaching & Education.
